SEX DRUGS & BICYCLES

a Jonathan Blank movie

"For anyone who still believes documentaries are dry and boring, the cure is Sex, Drugs & Bicycles!"
–David Ferguson, Red Carpet Crash

An award-winning documentary that exposes the nightmare of paid vacations, universal healthcare and windmills!

Sex, Drugs & Bicycles takes a funny and provocative look at Holland and answers the question: is having month-long double paid vacations, no fear of homelessness & universal healthcare the night-mare we've been warned about?

The Netherlands may be best known for its windmills and tulips (and marijuana "coffeeshops"), but it's also a country that is at the forefront of LGBTQI equality, free speech laws, and animal rights. Additionally, the Dutch economy is one of the best in the world, and they're in the top 5 of almost every quality of life index. Everyone also has excellent health insurance that even covers transgender medical procedures and sex care for the disabled.

- Holland is the #1 country in the world for work-life balance.
- Dutch kids are ranked the happiest in the world and their parents are close behind.
- The Netherlands' healthcare system is ranked 3rd in the world.
- They have very low rates of imprisonment, abortion, teen pregnancy, & drug abuse.
- They are the tallest people in the world. I'm not sure why that matters.

Here are some of the cool people in the movie:

Ruut Veenhoven, "Happiness professor"

David Sedaris, Storyteller

Marianne Thieme, Party for the Animals

Arjan Roskam, "King of Cannabis"

Yvette Luhrs, Proud Sex Workers' Union

Fink, Alternative rock music sensation

Nawal Mustafa, Human rights lawyer

Jonah Lamers, Trans activist

Paul Schnabel, Senator
